

Paterson and unions agree on limits for new pensions

June 5, 2009 - New York Times
Agreement would reduce pension benefits for future public employees and save the state billions of dollars in ballooning costs for retirees.

More Details

State cost to lure jobs: \$96 million

June 7, 2009 - The Atlanta Journal Constitution
Huge incentives to lure technology company from Ohio include a break on corporate tax bills, and $15 million worth of free training and research assistance.

More Details

Cash-poor PA school districts press teachers...

June 8, 2009 - Pittsburgh Tribune-Review
One eastern Pa. district's teacher union voluntarily offered to renegotiate midyear; others looking for give-backs before the end of the contracts.

More Details

Farmers could offset 25% of global emissions annually

June 8, 2009 - Sustainable Business News
Reducing and sequestering emissions by enriching soil carbon, farming with perennials, climate friendly live-stock production, protecting natural habitat, and more.

More Details

Minority lawmakers want bill to close health gaps

June 9, 2009 - The Associated Press
Seeking more funds for community health centers that provide care in poor neighborhoods is just one item on a wish list of health care overhaul plans floating in DC.

More Details

Poll: U.S. voters back privatized infrastructure

June 8, 2009 - Reuters
Voters increasingly supportive of privatized investment in lieu of tax increases or budget cuts...shorter lease terms preferred.

More Details

Rendell touts study... for consolidation of utilities

June 10, 2009 - Allentown Morning Call
Study claims regionalization could cut water bills by over one fourth... One water authority disagrees and says it would only work in some parts of the region, not all.

More Details

3 Committee members resign over cuts to gambling...

June 9, 2009 - Erie Times-News
Erie regional assets funding committee members upset about shift of gambling revenues from cultural assets to other county functions.

More Details

Va. Official: Transportation funding in jeopardy

June 3, 2009 - Washington Examiner
Virginia is no longer mowing medians, le alone solving congestion problems, but toll roads and public-private

June 11, 2009

State Representative Dan Frankel gives his report at the Annual Board of Fellows meeting in May.

INSTITUTE

June 19, 2009 -
Infrastructure Working Group meeting

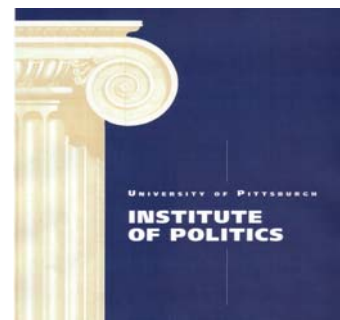

June 23, 2009 -
Harrisburg—Regional Visioning Initiative Presentation, Hearing Room 3 Keystone Building

July 9, 2009 -
"Achieving Interoperability through the State Radio System" forum

Click here to register

September 17-18, 2009
13th Annual Elected Officials Retreat

If you would like to receive a text only version of this publication, please email iopadmin@pitt.edu

Virginia is no longer mowing medians, let alone solving congestion problems, but toll roads and public-private partnerships seen as helping.

More Details

To remove your name from our mailing list, please email us at "Unsubscribe"
Questions/comments/suggestions? Email us at iopadmin@pitt.edu or call 412-624-1837.